January 9, 2010

Dear Neighbor,

You care about your community. That's why we're writing to you today.

The State is in danger of making a disastrous decision about State Route 520 in the next few weeks. You may be told there is "consensus" in favor of a monster SR 520 design called Option A+. Don't be fooled.

We in the Coalition for a Sustainable SR 520 believe that Seattle deserves better—much better. We represent the neighborhood councils of all the communities adjacent to SR 520. As a coalition, we bring years of experience on SR 520 issues, better solutions and considerable political clout.

We need your help. Now.

State and City politicians need to know right now that you are paying attention and that you care. You care about quiet streets, clean air and our natural environment. You care about efficient local as well as regional mobility. You care about transit, pedestrians and bicycles as well as emergency, commercial and private vehicles. You care about your community.

Time is critical. The enclosed booklet explains why your support this month could make the difference.

Sincerely,
